Without their generosity and presence,

we would not be able to celebrate the Sunday

Eucharist and Holy Week Ceremonies safely.

RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

O truly blessed night, when things of heaven are wed to those of earth and divine to the human.

A blessed night indeed, when God's love overcame the finality of death to raise Jesus to life. Jesus' humanity was defeated by hatred and fear and succumbed to the grip of death. But in an instant, that defeated humanity was suffused with divine Love and resurrected, because God's love is greater than hatred, fear, sin or even death. And now Jesus' resurrected humanity is forever integrated inseparably within the Divinity.

Thus we can take courage from the words of the Angel to the women at the tomb, "Do not be afraid." What is there to fear when our God has accepted our humanity as an integral element of the Divine? What can defeat us when God's love is so much more powerful than death? Surely the only legitimate response we can have is that of the women, filled with awe and great joy.

On this most blessed night, as we contemplate the empty tomb, let us allow ourselves to be overwhelmed with awe and joy at the extraordinary power of Love. Let us pray that the Lord will banish fear from our lives, so that we may live everyday in the joy of the Resurrection!

"The event of Christ's death and Resurrection [is] the heart of Christianity, principal fulcrum of our faith, powerful lever of our certainty, impetuous wind that sweeps away every fear and indecision, every doubt and human calculation."
