Her energy, warmth, enthusiasm, and wonderful ability to connect with people have brought so much joy and vitality to our parish community.

While we are sad to see her leave, we are also excited for her as she follows this new path in her career. She will be greatly missed, and we are deeply grateful for all she has contributed to our parish.

Over 20 Ways to Share Your Gifts

Our Parish Ministry Fair is almost here. On Stewardship Sunday weekend, September 19 and 20, we will gather after all Masses to celebrate the many ways our parish becomes a living community of faith, service, and welcome. This fair is more than a chance to sign up; it is an opportunity to see how each person's time, talent, and presence can help our parish flourish. More than 20 ministries, both long-standing and new, will be represented, offering many ways to connect, serve, learn, pray, and build friendships. Whether you are ready to lead, lend a hand, ask questions, or simply explore, there will be a place to begin. Next week's bulletin will include a special insert describing each ministry so parishioners can come prepared to listen, reflect, and discover where God may be calling them to share their gifts.
